2016 Winter Scientific Dinner Meeting

Date/Time: Friday January 15, 2016, 6:30pm Registration, 7pm to 9:00pm Dinner and Presentation

Location: Wesley Theological Seminary, 4500 Massachusetts Ave NW, Washington, DC 20016

Cost: $40, $15 for residents (includes dinner)

Topic: The Psychology of Addiction, Lance Dodes, M.D.

Dr. Dodes is a Training and Supervising Analyst Emeritus with the Boston Psychoanalytic Society and Institute and was assistant clinical professor of psychiatry at Harvard Medical School (retired). He has been the Director of the substance abuse treatment unit of Harvard’s McLean Hospital, Director of the Alcoholism Treatment Unit at Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital (now part of Massachusetts General Hospital) and Director of the Boston Center for Problem Gambling. He annually chairs the discussion group The Psychology of Addiction at the fall meeting of the American Psychoanalytic Association. His books, The Heart of Addiction (HarperCollins, 2002), Breaking Addiction: A 7-Step Handbook for Ending Any Addiction (HarperCollins, 2011) and The Sober Truth (Beacon Press, 2014) have been described as revolutionary advances in understanding how addictions work. Dr. Dodes has been honored by the Division on Addictions at Harvard Medical School for "Distinguished Contribution" to the study and treatment of addictive behavior, and has been elected a Distinguished Fellow of the American Academy of Addiction Psychiatry.

Educational Objectives:

At the conclusion of the presentation, attendees will be able to describe:

1. A new way to understand and treat addiction
2. The relationship of addictions to compulsions
3. The relative roles of physical and psychological factors in addiction
